FGV: RSPO-P&C certificates from 58 POM withdrawn

FGV announced the immediate withdrawal of the principles and criteria (P&C) certificates of environmentally sustainable operations from 58 of its processing mills that were granted by the Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil (RSPO). FGV added that the Felda Group remains a member of RSPO and continues its commitment to RSPO-P&C. The withdrawal exercise does not affect the Felda Group's RSPO Supply Chain Certification System (SCCS) certificate of its kernel crushing plants and downstream refineries, and will allow a more inclusive certification between commercially managed plantations by FGV and FELDA smallholders.

(Source: Bursa Malaysia)

Comments: The withdrawal will result in FGV losing the price premium on the CSPO (1.84m MT in 2015) that it supplies but the new FGV CEO had commented that the withdrawal will affect less than 1% of group revenue. FGV will recertify its mills in three years. Incidentally, Chain Reaction Research (CRR), which conducts sustainability risk analysis, highlighted a potential breach of RSPO standards by FGV in a report dated 21 April 2016. One of the two cases documented by an NGO AidEnvironment is the deforestation of 880 ha of identified High Conservation Value peatlands in Indonesia. Maintain SELL with a TP of RM1.29.

US stocks fall to three-week low as growth worries resurface

US stocks fell amid rekindled angst over the sluggish pace of global growth and an uninspiring flow of corporate earnings. The S&P 500 declined 0.9% to 2,063.37. The Dow lost 140.25 points (0.8%) to 17,750.91.

Two Fed officials signal markets may be wrong to doubt June hike

Atlanta Fed chief Dennis Lockhart and San Francisco's John Williams both signaled that the US economy could warrant a rate hike when the policy-setting Federal Open Market Committee gathers on June 14-15. Williams said he would support raising rates at the next meeting, provided the economy stayed on track. Lockhart said he wasn't leaning for or against a June increase until he sees more data, adding that two interest-rate increases this year are "certainly possible."

EU cuts euro area inflation forecast, warns nations on debt

The European Commission told the euro area's largest economies to reduce debt and modernize labor markets as it again slashed its inflation forecast and warned of slower-than-predicted growth across the 19-nation bloc. GDP in the currency area will increase by 1.6% this year and 1.8% in 2017, both 0.1ppt lower than the commission forecast in February. Inflation will average 0.2% this year, below the European Central Bank's target.

IMF sees rising debt challenge as Asia stays global outperformer

The International Monetary Fund said rising debt levels in major Asian economies have become a significant risk, even as the region remains on track to post solid economic growth. Asia-Pacific economies as a group will decelerate only slightly, to 5.3% this year and next, from 5.4% in 2015, the fund said in an annual regional report.

Australia's central bank cuts rates to record low

Australia's central bank cut its benchmark interest rate to a record low and left the door open for further easing to counter a wave of disinflation that's swept over the developed world. Reserve Bank of Australia Governor Glenn Stevens and his board lowered the cash rate by 25bps to 1.75%, a move predicted by just 12 of 27 economists surveyed by Bloomberg.

Australia injects a double dose of economic stimulus

Australia's economy received a double shot of stimulus as the government handed down an expansionary budget hours after the central bank eased policy for the first time in a year. Treasurer Scott Morrison unveiled a plan to cut company taxes, boost infrastructure spending and provide incometax relief, as he forecast a A$37.1bn (US$28.1bn) deficit in the 12 months through June 2017.

China's Caixin PMI slips in April as pockets of weakness remain

A private gauge of Chinese manufacturing slipped in April, underscoring pockets of weakness in an economy weighed by overcapacity and weak external demand. The manufacturing purchasing managers index from Caixin Media and Markit Economics fell to 49.4, missing economists' estimates for 49.8 and down from 49.7 in March.

WTI settles below US$44 before US stockpile report

Oil tumbled to below US$44 a barrel ahead of US government data forecast to show nationwide crude supplies rose last week. Brent for July settlement declined US$0.86 to US$44.97 a barrel.
