US equities little changed as VIX drops after Comey ouster

US stocks were little changed following President Donald Trump's firing of FBI director James Comey. The S&P 500 rose 0.1% to 2,399.63. The Dow fell 32.67 points (0.2%) to 20,943.11.

Fed's Rosengren warns of overheating risks and seeks more hikes

Federal Reserve dove-turned-hawk Eric Rosengren warned the US central bank was in danger of lifting its foot off the policy accelerator too slowly, and called for more aggressive action to prevent the economy from overheating. The Boston Fed president urged his colleagues to raise interest rates three more times this year and consider starting to shrink the central bank's balance sheet after their next hike.

ECB says slow-declining labor-market slack poses wage hurdle

Labor-market slack has remained quite high since the start of the recovery, and it's even increased in some countries. That poses a conundrum for the European Central Bank (ECB), which has waited patiently for wages to pick up and feed into its still-subdued inflation metrics. Prior to the crisis that started a decade ago, labor shortages typically tended to signal rising wage pressure, according to a report in the ECB's economic bulletin.

Draghi says too early to declare ECB success as growth firms

Mario Draghi said the European Central Bank's stimulus hasn't finished the job yet, even as he acknowledged that the region's economy is getting stronger. "The economic recovery has evolved from being fragile and uneven into a firming, broad-based upswing," the ECB president said. "Nevertheless, it is too early to declare success."

UK housing momentum ebbs as buyer interest and sales wane

Demand for UK housing dropped to a nine-month low in April in a sign the property market continues to cool, according to the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors. A measure of inquiries from potential buyers fell to minus 4 from 1 in March, RICS said in its monthly survey of real-estate agents published.

China's factory prices ease as commodity market surge abates

China's producer price gains slowed more than expected in April, adding to signs of a potential easing of global reflation fueled by the world's second-largest economy. Producer price index rose 6.4% yoy, versus a 6.7% Bloomberg survey estimate and 7.6% gain in March.

RBNZ keeps rates at record low, sees weaker inflation ahead

New Zealand's central bank kept interest rates at a record low and forecast they will remain there for an extended period, saying inflation will slow. "Monetary policy will remain accommodative for a considerable period," Reserve Bank Governor Graeme Wheeler said in a statement after holding the official cash rate at 1.75%. "Numerous uncertainties remain and policy may need to adjust accordingly."

Oil had its best day this year as supply drop eases glut concern

Oil had its best day this year after US crude stockpiles tumbled, easing concerns that the shale revival will prolong a supply glut. Brent for July settlement rose US$1.49 (3.1%) to US$50.22.
